Senate Majority Leader Sikkema Urges State Treasurer to ‘Make Some Time’

Scheduling Jay Rising for committee hearing proving difficult

Lansing - Senate Majority Leader Ken Sikkema, R-Wyoming, issued the following statement today after learning that the Senate Finance Committee has had trouble scheduling the testimony of State Treasurer Jay Rising regarding the governor’s 401(k) proposal:

“I promised the governor that all of her State of the State proposals would receive fair and timely hearings in the Senate. It will be difficult to deliver on that commitment if administration officials delay coming in for testimony. It seems to me that if this proposal truly mattered to the governor then her treasurer could make some time on his schedule to deliver the details.”
